The FY 2011 Interior and Environment Appropriations Bill provides $32.24 billion for the Department of the Interior, the Environmental Protection Agency, the US Forest Service, the Indian Health Service and a host of smaller, but very important, environmental and cultural agencies. This amount is equal to last year, but $133 million below the President's request.

{loadposition left}