The 2011 bill totals approximately $23 billion in discretionary spending. The bill total is $204 million below the FY2010 enacted level and $27 million below the President's request. The bill provides critical funds for protecting public health, supporting domestic agriculture, improving nutrition, strengthening rural communities, and conserving the environment.

{loadposition left}