

Paul F. Bliss
President and CEO

Big Brothers Big Sisters of the National Capital Area

Paul Bliss has led the largest period of growth in the organizations' long history. BBBS has been recognized locally and nationally as a high performing mentoring organization with a strong record of program innovation. Paul served as a Big Brother mentor to a child for over seven years.

His success in recruiting and retaining a professional team has helped grow BBBSNCA into one of the largest Big Brothers Big Sisters organizations in the U.S.

Mr. Bliss is a graduate of the Catholic University of America's School of Social Work and currently serves on the Catholic University's Board of the Governors. He previously worked in juvenile and adult probation in the Washington region for a decade before being appointed CEO of BBBSNCA in 1991.

Paul resides in Bowie, MD with his wife and their three children.
