

Suzanne Murrin

Assistant Inspector General for Policy Development and Resources Management

Suzanne Murrin is the Assistant Inspector General for Policy Development and Resources Management for the Office of Inspector General (OIG) at the United States Department of Agriculture. Her office handles the OIG's budget, procurement, human resources, information technology, office administration, internal policy development, and equal employment opportunity program.

Before joining the USDA OIG, Ms. Murrin served for five years as the Director for Audit Planning, Training, and Technical Support in the Department of Transportation OIG. Ms. Murrin also served for nine years at the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) in the Executive Office of the President of the United States. At OMB, Ms. Murrin was responsible for coordinating OIG issues government-wide and for providing support to OMB's Deputy Director for Management's chairmanship of the President's Council on Integrity and Efficiency. Ms. Murrin began her Federal career in 1987 as a Program Analyst in the Office of Evaluations and Inspections in the Department of Health and Human Services OIG.

Ms. Murrin received her Bachelors degree at the University of Michigan. She is a native of Detroit, Michigan, and now resides in the District of Columbia.