

Michael Jennings
Owner Cowboy Charters
Charter Boat El Vaquero and Charter Boat Cowboy Way

Mike Jennings, a 25 year veteran of the fishing industry, owner and captain of the Charter boat El Vaquero. This charter vessel operates out of Freeport, Texas, and provides an expert fishing expedition opportunity to passengers from all over the country. Jennings is an accomplished and award-winning fisherman, specializing in bottom fishing, big game fishing and tournament fishing in the Gulf of Mexico. Jennings currently holds numerous NMFS documents

- One NMFS commercial Reef Fish Permit
- Two NMFS Charter Boat Reef Fish Permits
- Two NMFS Charter Boat Pelagic Permits
- Two NMFS Highly migratory Permits.

Jennings is a fishing authority, and his passion for the sport has afforded him the opportunity to hold many local and regional leadership positions advocating for the industry.

- Columnist, Texas Saltwater Fishing Magazine
- Board Member of The Charter Fisherman's Association
- Vice President of The Charter Fisherman's Association 2010 to present
- Council Member of the Flower Garden Banks Advisory Council, National Marine Sanctuaries 2007 to present
- Advisory Panel member for the Gulf of Mexico Fisheries Management Council 2010, 2011

Jennings has achieved numerous milestones and received industry recognition and awards for his fishing skill and expertise including:

- Numerous tournament wins throughout his career

Jennings is a resident of Freeport Texas. And currently operates a full time hunting and Fishing Outfitting Service in the State of Texas. That includes two Full time operating Charter Vessels.