

Dr. Timothy Mitchell
Biographical Information

Dr. Timothy Mitchell, Ed.D, became the Superintendent of Schools for the Rapid City Area Schools in Rapid City, South Dakota on July 1, 2010. He previously served as the Superintendent of Schools of the Chamberlain School District 7-1 in Chamberlain, South Dakota. He had served in that position since 1995. He received his M.A. in Educational Administration (1995), his Ed.S in School Superintendency (2000) and his Ed.D in School Superintendency (2008) from the University of South Dakota in Vermillion, South Dakota. His dissertation "South Dakota Public School Superintendents' Perception of Innovation" is an in-depth study of innovative leadership characteristics of superintendents, public school districts and school boards in South Dakota.

He has served on the Executive Board of the South Dakota School Superintendents Association (SDSSA) and was President during the 2005-2006 school year. He has served on the Executive Board of the School Administrators of South Dakota (SASD) and was President for the 2006-2007 school year. He currently serves on the American Association of Administrators (AASA) National Governing Board.