

The bill provides $46.4 billion to spur energy innovation, boost economic prosperity, improve water infrastructure, & mitigate & adapt to climate change

U.S. Department of Energy: $37.1 billion

- Energy Efficiency & Renewable Energy (EERE) — $2.65 billion for clean, affordable & secure energy, & ensures American leadership in the transition to a global clean energy economy

- The bill provides $2.3 billion above the President's budget request for EERE & $272 million above the fiscal year 2019 enacted level

- Advanced Research Projects Agency - Energy (ARPA-E) — $425 million in funding to support research aimed at rapidly developing energy technologies that are capable of significantly changing the energy sector to address our critical economic, environmental, & energy security challenges

- The bill rejects the President's proposed elimination of ARPA-E

- Electric Grid Research & Development — $350 million for efforts to secure the nation's energy infrastructure against hazards, reduce the risks of & impacts from cybersecurity events, & modernize the nation's electric grid

- National Nuclear Security Administration — $15.9 billion to ensure a safe, secure, & credible nuclear deterrent while addressing the threat of nuclear proliferation and terrorism

- Environmental Management — $7.2 billion for environmental cleanup, including nuclear waste cleanup at 16 sites across the country

Army Corps of Engineers: $7.36 billion

- Provides $2.53 billion above the President's budget request (& an increase of $357 million above the fiscal year 2019 enacted level) for programs & projects including studies, construction, operation, & maintenance

- The bill provides for six new study starts & six new construction projects

U.S. Bureau of Reclamation: $1.63 billion

- Provides $528 million above the budget request (& an increase of $83 million above the fiscal year 2019 enacted level) for water resource management & other water resources projects, including those authorized in the Water Infrastructure Improvements for the Nation (WIIN) Act

