

Interior-Environment, and Related Agencies

Fiscal Year 2020 Bill At-a-Glance

House Appropriations

The bill provides $37.3 billion to protect & preserve public lands, ensure access to clean air & drinking water, & build resilience to climate change

Department of the Interior: $13.79 billion

- National Park Service — $3.38 billion for operations, preservation, & funds for 500 new park staff, $649 million above the President's budget request
  - Historic Preservation Fund — $122 million, including funds for State & Tribal Historic Preservation Offices, Save America's Treasures grants, civil rights site preservation grants, & grants to Historically Black Colleges & Universities
- U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service — $1.7 billion, $342 million above the President's budget request

Environmental Protection Agency: $9.53 billion

- Funding the EPA at $3.3 billion above the President's budget request, including $3.44 billion for EPA's core science and environmental program work
- State and Tribal Assistance Grants — $4.62 billion
  - Clean Water & Drinking Water State Revolving Funds — $3.08 billion
  - $70 million in targeted grants for drinking water contaminants like lead & other hazards
- Superfund site cleanups — $1.21 billion

Land & Water Conservation Fund: $524 million

- Including $244 million for the federal program & $280 million for state programs

National Endowment for the Arts & National Endowment for the Humanities

- $167.5 million in funding for each agency, providing $12.5 million above the 2019 enacted levels & rejecting the President's proposed elimination of both agencies.

Tribal Programs

- Indian Health Service — $6.3 billion for health services, recruitment & retention of health professionals, clinics & staff quarters, & investments in green infrastructure
- Bureau of Indian Affairs — $2.1 billion
- Bureau of Indian Education — $1.4 billion

