

INTERIOR-ENVIRONMENT

Fiscal Year 2021 Appropriations Bill At-a-Glance

Provides $36.76 billion in regular appropriations to protect and preserve public lands, build resilience to climate change, strengthen environmental workforce, and ensure access to safe drinking water.

Chair Betty McCollum on the Interior, Environment, and Related Agencies government funding bill:

“This bill advances the priorities of American families: clean air and water to protect our children’s health, protections for treasured places and endangered species, and meaningful action on climate change.”

Caring for Public Lands, Treasured Places, and Wildlife

- $3.22 billion for the National Park Service, $55 million above FY20 and $449 million above Trump’s request
  - $136 million for the Historic Preservation Fund, $18 million above FY20 and $96 million above Trump’s request
- $1.6 billion for the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, $37 million above FY20 and $201 million above Trump’s request
- $1.3 billion for the Bureau of Land Management, $107 million above Trump’s request

Protecting Our Environment

- $9.38 billion for the Environmental Protection Agency, $318 million above FY20 and $2.67 billion above Trump’s request
  - $4.36 billion for State and Tribal Assistance Grants, $119 million above FY20 and $1.52 billion above Trump’s request
  - $189 million for targeted grants for drinking water contaminants and wastewater treatment, $36 million above FY20 and $86 million above Trump’s request
  - $1.22 billion for Superfund cleanups, $37 million above FY20 and $143 million above Trump’s request

Meeting Our Commitments to Native Americans

- $6.5 billion for the Indian Health Service, $445 million above FY20 and $199 million above Trump’s request
- $3.5 billion for the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Bureau of Indian Education, and Office of the Special Trustee, an increase of $188 million above FY20 and $562 million above Trump’s request

Supporting the Arts and Humanities

- $170 million each for the National Endowment for the Arts and the National Endowment for the Humanities, $7.75 million above FY20 and rejects Trump’s proposal to eliminate the Agencies

Rebuilding Our Infrastructure

- $15 billion in emergency funding for urgent infrastructure investments to be made by the Environmental Protection Agency, Bureau of Indian Education, and Indian Health Service
  - Includes $10.21 billion in emergency appropriations for Clean Water and Drinking Water State Revolving Funds, for a total of $12.97 billion (emergency and base)