

Erik Mikael Hein

Erik M. Hein is the President of Preservation Action, a national non-profit grassroots advocacy organization founded in 1974 dedicated entirely to federal historic preservation policy – a position he has held since December of 2009. Prior to joining Preservation Action, he has held a variety of positions in historic preservation including Program Director for the DC Preservation League, Preservation Officer for the City of Harrisburg, PA, Assistant Executive Director of Historic Harrisburg Association, Project Director for the Friends of the Star Barn, and Treasurer of the People's Bridge Coalition. He also served on the Board of the Historic Broad Street Market Corporation and is a current Trustee of the Committee of 100 on the Federal City, as well as co-chair of its Historic Preservation Subcommittee. He is also an ex-officio Board Member of US/ICOMOS.

A native of Bucks County, PA, Erik holds a Bachelors of Humanities degree from Pennsylvania State University and a Masters in American Studies/Historic Preservation from the George Washington University. He also studied 19th Century Art, Architecture and Economics at the Victoria University of Manchester, UK.
