HIGHLIGHTS OF THE BILL

The Committee recommends $3,811,132,960 in discretionary resources for operations of the Legislative Branch of government (excluding Senate items). The fiscal year 2019 recommendation is $132,678,541 above the current fiscal year level and $78,017,832 below the budget request.

Conforming to longstanding practice under which each body of Congress determines its own housekeeping requirements and the other concurs without intervention, funds for the Senate are not included in the bill as reported to the House. The budget request for the Senate for fiscal year 2019 including those under the Architect of the Capitol totals $1,068,867,040.

This bill reflects a continued acknowledgment that the Legislative Branch must set itself as an example for fiscal restraint while continuing to serve the Nation. This bill will require strict fiscal discipline on the part of all Congressional offices and all agency heads in the Legislative Branch.

LEGISLATIVE BRANCH-WIDE MATTERS

Reprogramming Guidelines: It is expected that all agencies notify the Committees on Appropriations of the House and the Senate of any significant departures from budget plans presented to the Committees in any agency's budget justifications. In particular, agencies funded through this bill are required to notify the Committees prior to each reprogramming of funds in excess of the lesser of 10 percent or $750,000 between programs, projects or activities, or in excess of $750,000 between object classifications (except for shifts within the pay categories, object class 11, 12, and 13 or as further specified in each agency's respective section). This includes cumulative reprogrammings that together total at least $750,000 from or to a particular program, activity, or object classification as well as reprogramming FTEs or funds to create new organizational entities within the Agency or to restructure entities which already exist. The Committees desire to be notified of reprogramming actions which involve less than the above-mentioned amounts if such actions would have the effect of changing an agency's funding requirements in future years or if programs or projects specifically cited in the Committee's reports are affected.

Staffing Data in Budget Documents: Legislative branch FTE data is not consistently reported across the Legislative Branch agencies when submitting their budget justifications. The Committee directs the legislative branch agencies to include data on FTE levels that would actually be supported by the associated request or enacted funding levels. The Committee continues to direct the Legislative Branch Financial Managers Council to coordinate on a plan for aligning FTE levels with the Legislative branch agencies for consistency in reporting.

Zero Base Budgeting: The Committee continues to direct all agencies of the Legislative Branch to develop budget requests from a zero base. The Committee believes that this valuable budgeting process has given agencies the opportunity to take a fresh look at all areas of their operations and make funding reductions and alignments within the current budget base. The Committee believes that there are continued opportunities to realize meaningful savings by carefully reviewing each agency’s budget requirements from a zero base.

Committee Requests, Furloughs and Performance Based Merit Increases: The Committee directs that adherence to the language carried in House Reports 112–148, 112–511 and 113–417 pertaining to Committee Requests and Furloughs to be continued unless otherwise so directed. Performance Based Merit Increases are not to exceed the maximum allowable for agencies with a certified SES performance appraisal system.

Data Centers: The Committee understands that Legislative Branch Agencies use information technology (IT) infrastructure to support critical functions to carry out their statutory missions, including functions essential to carrying out the constitutional responsibilities of the Legislative Branch.

IT infrastructure may be located in data centers covering several geographic regions or using several types of cloud services. Regardless of how such infrastructure is provisioned, an agency’s IT infrastructure must satisfy the following requirements: must meet ‘concurrently maintainable’ requirements of data centers certified from the Uptime Institute or equivalent certifying authority; must maintain continuous operation against an ‘all hazards’ risk evaluation; and, must incorporate technical communications capabilities to ensure that all necessary IT resources required to support the mission of the Legislative Branch can interoperate effectively with the House, Senate, and other agencies under ‘all hazards’ conditions.

The following table summarizes the funding allocation provided to each component of the account:

Office of the Clerk $28,305,000

Witness Disclosure Forms: House rules require non-governmental witnesses appearing before any committee of the House to disclose recent grants or contracts from the Federal or foreign governments. In implementing this requirement, committees are using PDF forms to gather the information. This format often results in witnesses' hand writing their information on the disclosure forms, sometimes not legible. The Committee intends to work with the Committee on House Administration to develop and make available to all committees a disclosure document in webform to ensure the required information is typed and clearly readable.

Member Bioguide: Currently the only publically available structure to the Member Bioguide data is HTML. This presents challenges for individuals and outside groups that wish to programmatically make use of the information. The Committee is aware of and encouraged by the Office of Clerk's efforts to publish the Bioguide data in machine readable format. The Committee has been informed that the target completion for this initiative is December 2018.

Office of the Sergeant At Arms $18,773,000
Office of the Chief Administrative Officer 147,558,000

House Child Care Center Expansion: The Committee is encouraged by the construction progress to date at the new House Child Care Center location. While physically expanding the Center will reduce the lengthy waitlist and create more opportunities for families to utilize the facility, it also provides an opportunity to examine and evaluate the operations of the Center. The Chief Administrative Officer is encouraged to work with the House Child Care Center Advisory Board in evaluating current operations and with the expectation any recommendations be implemented in conjunction with the full physical expansion of the Center.

CAO Tracking of Metrics: The Committee directs the CAO Logistics and Support division (L&S) to identify and create, accurately maintain, and report on the operating measures that reflect the demand for L&S services, the costs to meet the demand (e.g., labor, materials, equipment), the length of time to fulfill service request, and the satisfaction of those receiving L&S services.

Food Waste Reduction: The United States Department of Agriculture and the Environmental Protection Agency set a joint goal of reducing food waste by 50 percent by the year 2030. The Committee believes that the House should help to meet this goal and, whenever possible, ensure that food waste generated at House food services does not end up in a landfill. The Committee urges the Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) to explore composting and donation options for House food services.

Office of the Inspector General $5,019,000
Office of General Counsel 1,502,000
Office of the Parliamentarian 2,026,000

Transition Activities	3,000,000
Wounded Warrior Program	2,750,000

Wounded Warrior Program: The Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) managed Wounded Warrior program is one of the House's most supported initiatives. The program currently provides 85 two-year fellowship positions for wounded veterans in Congressional offices. The Committee believes that with effective management of the program and continued support in appropriations, sufficient funding exists to expand the program by an additional 25 fellowship positions. The Committee is also aware that the CAO is evaluating the program and may be making some recommendations as a result. The Committee is interested in the CAO's observations of the program and any recommendations to improve it. Use of Grounds: The Committee understands the need to maintain safety and order on the Capitol grounds and commends the Capitol Police for their efforts. Given the family-style neighborhood that the Capitol shares with the surrounding community the Committee continues to instruct the Capitol Police to forebear enforcement of 2 U.S.C. 1963 (“An act to protect the public property, turf, and grass of the Capitol Grounds from injury”) and the Traffic Regulations for the United States Capitol Grounds when encountering snow sledders on the grounds.

afforded to USCP sworn employees under the Capitol Police Retirement Act, the Social Security benefit, the Federal Employees Retirement System benefit, and the Thrift Savings Plan annuity; the long-term financial impact on the USCP if enacted; and provide benchmark data against other Federal law enforcement agencies to ensure Federal law enforcement parity for the USCP will not be impacted should the mandatory retirement age be raised to 60 years of age.

The Office of Compliance was established to administer and enforce the Congressional Accountability Act (Public Law 104-91). The Act applies various employment and workplace safety laws to Congress and certain Legislative Branch entities.

Additional Resources: This act makes available additional resources to the Office of Compliance (OOC) to help address the increase in requests for in-person training, enhancements to the OOC's on-line training modules, and to help address the overall increase in caseload. It is a top priority of the Committee's that employing authorities are held accountable for employee rights that are violated, as well as, making sure employees know and understand their rights and have access to a dispute resolution process that is fair and easy to navigate. The Committee also stands by to ensure the OOC has adequate resources to implement Congressional Accountability Act reform were it to be passed by Congress.

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

Appropriation, fiscal year 2018	$49,945,000

The Committee recommends $50,737,000 for salaries and expenses of the Congressional Budget Office.

This office is responsible for producing independent analyses of budgetary and economic issues to support the Congressional budget process. Each year, the agency produces dozens of reports, including its outlook on the budget and economy, and hundreds of cost estimates for proposed legislation.

Responsiveness: The Congressional Budget Office (CBO) provides nonpartisan, budgetary and economic analysis to support the work of the Congress and its reports and analysis can have far reaching policy implications. The Committee expects CBO, to the greatest extent practicable, to ensure a high level of responsiveness to committees, leadership, and individual Members. There is support for the work that CBO has done in the area of responsiveness thus far, as well as support for the agency’s goals to continue its improved responsiveness efforts. Those efforts include developing analysts who can move from one topic to another when demand surges for analysis of a particular topic, developing deeper expertise in certain topics so that the agency is better positioned to analyze new proposals in those areas in a more timely manner, expanding its use of team approaches in which work on large and complicated proposals is shared, and assisting rank and file Members of Congress in the development of legislation. The Committee recommends CBO consider factors such as the number of co-sponsors for legislation when prioritizing which legislation receives a cost estimate beyond what is mandated in statute and requested by Committees. The Committee directs CBO to provide periodic updates to the Committee on progress specifically in the area of increased responsiveness to Member requests.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISION

Section 130 provides relocation reimbursement authority to new employees.

ARCHITECT OF THE CAPITOL

Within the recommended level the Committee continues its prioritization of projects that: (1) promote the safety and health of workers and occupants, (2) decrease the deferred maintenance backlog, and (3) invest to achieve future energy savings.

The AOC is responsible for the maintenance, operation, development, and preservation of the United States Capitol Complex. This includes mechanical and structural maintenance of the Capitol, Congressional office buildings, the Library of Congress buildings, the U.S. Botanic Garden, the Capitol Power Plant, and other facilities, as well as the upkeep and improvement of the grounds surrounding the Capitol complex.

Energy and Sustainability Program: The Committee continues to be supportive of, and encouraged by, the Architect of the Capitol’s (AOC) robust energy savings and sustainability initiatives across their jurisdictions.

Since fiscal year 2003 the AOC has facilitated energy reduction across the Capitol campus by more than 30% with the goal of 50% reduction by fiscal year 2025. A large driver of those energy savings has been the AOC’s entrance into several Energy Saving Performance Contracts which has made possible more investments in infrastructure efficiencies and saved the AOC more than $100 million in cost avoidance. The AOC has also instituted waste reduction, recycling, and composting programs that has reduced building occupant waste by 44% and diverted construction waste by 90%.

There are no capital projects in fiscal year 2019.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

Section 140 prohibits payment of bonuses to contractors behind schedule or over budget.

Section 141 prohibits expenditure of funds for scrims for projects performed by the Architect of the Capitol.

Section 142 allows interagency transfers of funds to support the security needs of Congress.

Section 143 amends the small purchase threshold.

Section 144 authorizes details of employees.

Section 145 authorizes employees to accept reimbursement of expenses for attending meetings and other functions in an official capacity. The Architect of the Capitol is directed to update its Ethics Order to incorporate this new authority as well as including the requirement applicable to executive branch agencies that the Architect of the Capitol submit semi-annual reports on all expenses paid in amounts greater than $250.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

Established by Congress in 1800, the Library of Congress is one of the largest libraries in the world, with a collection of more than 162,000,000 print, audio, and video items in 470 languages. Among its major programs are acquisitions, preservation, administration of U.S. copyright laws by the Copyright Office, research and analysis of policy issues for the Congress by the Congressional Research Service, and administration of a national program to provide reading material to the blind and physically handicapped. The Library maintains a significant number of collections and provides a range of services to libraries in the United States and abroad. Increased funding is for information technology modernization within the Library, the Copyright Office, and the Congressional Research service.

Visitor Experience: The Visitor Experience Plan for the Library of Congress' Thomas Jefferson Building is an initiative that continues to have support in Congress. The proposed project will enhance the Library's ability to bring the nation's collections and history out of the vaults and into public spaces. With enhancements to exhibition spaces and development of learning centers, the Library can maximize the experience for its nearly two million annual visitors. The proposed funding for this initiative involves a public/private partnership, which has been a successful strategy for many similar institutions' efforts to showcase our nation's treasures. Included is $20,000,000 for enhancements to the public exhibits and visitor services at the Library.

Congress.gov Calendar: Not later than 90 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Library of Congress and the Government Publishing Office shall update the Congress.gov website to include a calendar for Senate and House of Representatives committee hearings and markups. That calendar, updated continuously as new information is available, shall include at least the following information about every hearing and markup taking place in the Senate and House of Representatives: the committee name; the subcommittee name (if appropriate); the meeting topic; witnesses (if any); legislation under consideration (if any); a link to legislation under consideration (if any); a link to the committee or subcommittee's website; and a link to where video or audio (if any) from the proceedings are or will become available. The calendar shall be organized chronologically, and viewable as an individual day as well as a weekly view.

Law Library Digitization: The Committee commends the Law Library for continuing to provide support to the time-sensitive and complex needs of the Congress, the Supreme Court, Executive Branch agencies, courts, practicing attorneys, state bars, state and local governments, American businesses, scholars, journalists, and those with legal research needs. The Committee urges the Law Library to engage in a digitization strategy as part of the Library's overall digitization strategy to increase online access to major parts of its collections, such as the U.S. Serial Sets and Supreme Court Records and briefs.

Preservation: Recognizing that the Library's extremely diverse collections require a well balanced approach of preservation assessment, treatment, reformatting, environmental storage and protective housing, the Committee directs that the mass deacidification program be maintained at a reasonable level of activity for a balanced preservation program.

Outreach: The Committee encourages the Library of Congress to increase cooperative partnerships, fellowship opportunities, and curriculum program associations with community colleges, Historically Black Colleges and Universities, Hispanic-serving institutions, Asian American and native American Pacific Islander-serving institutions, American Indian Tribally controlled colleges and universities, Alaska native and Native Hawaiian-serving institutions, predominantly Black institutions, Native American-serving institutions, Nontribal institutions, and other minority-serving institutions.

National Film and Sound Recording Preservation Programs: The Committee recognizes the important work of the National Film and Sound Recording Preservation Programs, including the federally chartered National Film and National Recording Preservation Foundations. Consistent with the authorizing statute, the Foundations utilize both public and private matching funds to provide grants to a wide array of educational and non-profit organizations that help preserve historical and cultural artifacts that would otherwise disappear or be destroyed over time. Given that these programs were reauthorized, the Committee expects that the library will provide full support to these programs.

Veterans History Project: The Committee expects the Veterans History Project to be funded at least at the fiscal year 2018 level. The Committee recognizes the critical importance of the Veterans History Project as a way to collect, preserve and make accessible the personal accounts of American war veterans for the benefit of future generations. As the Veterans History Project relies on volunteers to collect and submit veteran’s stories, the Committee encourages the Library of Congress to do further outreach with schools, Girl and Boy Scout programs, and Veterans Service Organizations and nonprofit and community stakeholders serving veterans from historically underrepresented groups to enhance the project.

Copyright Modernization: The Committee continues to support the collaborative work between the United States Copyright Office (USCO) and the Library of Congress’s Office of the Chief Information Officer’s Office (OCIO). Copyright modernization is something the Committee fully supports and will continue to provide requested resources towards. The Committee does have concerns that thus far the investments have not yielded many public-facing Copyright modernization enhancements. However, the Committee’s understanding is that the Copyright modernization work to date has been behind the scenes building a strong foundation for the long-term modernization strategy. When appropriate USCO is encouraged to engage with stakeholders both in the Congressional-community and beyond to highlight the progress that has already been made and to outline clear benchmarks for progress moving forward.

Copyright Expertise: The Committee understands the Copyright Office has offered its expertise on copyright matters to the Executive Branch, including participation in international discussions, and expects the Office to continue that important role. Consistent with historical practice, the Committee expects the Library to continue to defer to the copyright expertise of the Register of Copyrights.

CONGRESSIONAL RESEARCH SERVICE

Appropriation, fiscal year 2018	$119,279,000
Budget request, fiscal year 2019	113,621,000
Committee recommendation	125,688,000
Change from enacted level	+6,409,000
Change from request	+12,067,000

The Committee recommends $125,688,000 for salaries and expenses of the Congressional Research Service (CRS). CRS works for Members and Committees of Congress to support their legislative, oversight, and representational functions by providing nonpartisan and confidential research and policy analysis.

Technology Assessment Study: The Committee has heard testimony on, and received dozens of requests advocating for restoring funding to the Office of Technology Assessment (OTA), and more generally on how Congress equips itself with the deep technical advice necessary to understand and tackle the growing number of science and technology policy challenges that face our country. The Committee directs the Congressional Research Service (CRS) to engage with the National Academy of Public Administration or a similar external entity to produce a report detailing the current resources available to Members of Congress within the Legislative Branch regarding science and technology policy. This study should also assess the potential need within the Legislative Branch to create a separate entity charged with the mission of providing nonpartisan advice on issues of science and technology. Furthermore, the study should also address if the creation of such entity duplicate services already available to Members of Congress. CRS should work with the Committee in developing the parameters of the study and once complete, the study should be made available to CRS's committees of jurisdiction.

Congressional Staff Education: The Committee appreciates the work the Congressional Research Service (CRS) does in providing classes and seminars to both Members and staff. The Committee also appreciates the New Member Seminar CRS holds each Congress to orientate new Members to issues they are most concerned about. In an effort to train new congressional staff, the Committee recommends CRS expand its training offerings to include a new staffers seminar on issues relating to the same topics new Members are briefed on. CRS is directed to have a plan on the implementation of the pilot program 180 days after enactment. In discharging its responsibilities to Congress, CRS should ensure positions taken by the House or the Senate in litigation or otherwise are included in its products, classes and seminars to Members and staff.

BOOKS FOR THE BLIND AND PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED

Appropriation, fiscal year 2018	$51,498,000
Budget request, fiscal year 2019	51,192,000
Committee recommendation	52,783,000
Change from enacted level	+1,285,000
Change from request	+1,591,000

The Committee recommends $52,783,000 for salaries and expenses of the National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped (NLS).

The NLS has administered a free national reading program for blind and physically handicapped residents of the United States and U.S. citizens living abroad since 1931. NLS provides direction for the production of books and magazines in braille and recorded formats and audio playback machines for distribution through a nationwide network of 55 regional and 33 sub-regional libraries.

eReader Program: In 2016 Congress authorized the National Library Services for the Blind and Physically Handicapped (NLS) to provide readers for electronic braille (Public Law 114–219). The Committee included report language in the fiscal year 2017 omnibus and the fiscal year 2018 omnibus supporting the NLS approach of a pilot program to study braille eReaders, and with information learned from the pilot, work with the network of participating NLS libraries to scale the braille eReader program up so that it can deliver the increased accessibility that Congress intended. The Committee again directs the NLS to share the results of that pilot with the Committee in order to identify what, if any, additional resources will be required to implement the braille eReaders program nationwide.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISION

Section 150 authorizes obligational authority for reimbursable and revolving funds.

GOVERNMENT PUBLISHING OFFICE

GPO provides publishing and dissemination services for Federal government publications to Congress, Federal agencies, Federal depository libraries, and the American public.

The Committee commends GPO for its continuing use of digital technology to support the information requirements of Congress, including the ongoing development of a new XML-based composition system, which to date has resulted in the release in beta of a capability for the composition of congressional bills as well as the capability for the composition of the 2018 edition of the U.S. Code; a project to convert a subset of enrolled bills; public laws, and the Statutes at Large into USLM format, which is expected to be completed in 2018; the planned retirement of GPO's Federal Digital System (FDSys) by the end of 2018 and its replacement by GPO's new website, govinfo, which provides permanent public access to more than 2.2 million Government titles including congressional information; and the agency's completion of work to digitize all issues of the Congressional Record dating back to its introduction in 1873. Additionally, the Committee supports GPO's investments in newer, more cost-effective equipment for publishing congressional documents. Together, these efforts have helped GPO constrain the costs of its operations while expanding Government information access options to the American people, bringing greater openness and transparency to Congress and the Government.

Statutes at Large: The Committee continues to support the work of the Legislative Branch Bulk Data Task Force, particularly in its efforts to convert Statutes at Large into United States Legislative Markup XML (USLM) format. Currently the Government Publishing Office (GPO) is in the process of converting all Statutes at Large from the 108th Congress forward into USLM XML format. Also available online in searchable PDF format are all Statutes at Large from 1951–2002. The Committee directs the GPO to assess the costs associated with converting Statutes at Large from 1789–2002 into the USLM XML format.

The Committee recommends $32,000,000 for the salaries and expenses of the Public Information Programs of the Superintendent of Documents.

The Public Information Programs of the Superintendent of Documents account funds the mailing of government documents for Members of Congress and Federal agencies, as statutorily authorized; the compilation of catalogs and indexes of government publications; and the cataloging, indexing, and providing of government publications in digital and tangible formats to the Federal Depository and International Exchange libraries and to other individuals and entities, as authorized by law.

The Committee recommends $6,000,000 for the Business Operations Revolving Fund.

The operations of the Government Publishing Office are financed through the Business Operations Revolving Fund. This business-like fund is used to pay GPO's costs in performing congressional and agency publishing, information product procurement, and publications dissemination activities. The fund is reimbursed from payments from customer agencies, sales to the public, appropriations to the fund, and transfers from GPO's two annual appropriations.

The bill continues language authorizing the operation of the revolving fund and authority to hire or purchase automobiles, advisory councils, and consultants.

GOVERNMENT ACCOUNTABILITY OFFICE

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

Appropriation, fiscal year 2018	$578,916,653
Budget request, fiscal year 2019	616,101,000
Committee recommendation	578,916,653
Offsetting Collections	23,800,000
Total available	$602,716,653
Change from enacted level	0
Change from request	-37,184,347

The Committee recommends $578,916,653 in direct appropriations for the Government Accountability Office (GAO), plus $23,800,000 in offsetting collections derived from reimbursements for conducting financial audits of government corporations and rental of space in the GAO building.

This level of funding will enable an increase of 80 FTE over the fiscal year 2018 level and will allow an enhanced focus on cybersecurity issues and the threats to the nation's critical infrastructure, continued focus on a range of rapidly evolving science and technology issues; bolster reviews of the increased investment in Department of Defense programs; and assess the challenges associated with growing health care costs.

GAO was established by the Budget and Accounting Act of 1921. GAO works for Congress by responding to requests for studies of Federal Government programs and expenditures. GAO may also initiate its own work.

Duplicative Government Programs: Each year the Committee receives requests to direct the Government Accountability Office (GAO) to produce a report to Congress identifying duplicative programs throughout the Federal government. Since passage of Public Law 111-139 in 2010 the GAO has been mandated to produce such a report. In a yearly report the GAO identifies Federal programs, agencies, offices and initiatives that have duplicative goals or activities. Since 2011 the GAO has presented 645 actions in 249 areas for Congress or executive branch agencies to reduce, eliminate, or better manage fragmentation, overlap or duplication. To date, Congress and the executive branch have addressed 329 of those actions resulting in roughly $135 billion in financial benefits.

Whistleblower Resource Study: The Committee believes whistleblowers serve Congress as important sources of information about Federal waste, fraud, abuse and malfeasance. There are many avenues that are in place today for whistleblowers to make their concerns known. For example the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform has a Blow the Whistle webpage, the Government Accountability Office maintains a Fraud Hotline and many personal offices of Members of Congress routinely receive information from whistleblowers. The Committee also believes it is important to protect whistleblowers and ensure that those handling the information provided have the resources they need and are aware of best practices when working with whistleblowers.

The Committee directs the Government Accountability Office (GAO) to produce a report that identifies what avenues currently exist within the Legislative Branch for whistleblowers to communicate with Congress; identify best practices for Congressional staff when interacting with whistleblowers; and how best to get the information to the proper entity of jurisdiction so it can be investigated. The report should be provided to the Committee within 270 days of enactment.
